GENERAL WALLACE DEAD.

Gen. Law Wallace died in Crawfords-ville, Ind., last night at 9:10 o'clock.
He had been a sufferer from cancer of the stomach for some time.

General Wallace was born in Brookville, Franklin county, Ind., in 1827, and he had been in the thick of political, military and literary life since the Mexican war, which he entered before he had attained his majority and from which he emerged a young lieutenant, covered with honors. Apparently nothing in his whole wonderful career to which he had set his hand has been done other than well. Possibly the least success attained by him was as a lawyer, which career he embraced in his early manhood. After the stirring events of the civil war, from which he emerged a major-general, he took up for a brief period the practice of the legal profession. But he did not like the law, and gradually, with diplomatic work interspersed, he undertook the work of a litterateur, in which he had made his most distinguished success.

As the author of "Ben-Hur" General Wallace is known in practically every country of the globe. No other book since the days of "Pilgrim's Progress" has been so widely read. An estimate indicates that from the total number of editions of the book that have been sold at least 4,000,000 persons have read and enjoyed the Hoosier soldier's beautiful tale of the lowly Nazarene.
The dramatization of the work, which was completed in 1901, further extended the general knowledge of the story and added largely as well to the fame and profit of the author.

General Wallace was "to the manor born," his father, David Wallace, having been elected Governor of Indiana in 1837 and to Congress in 1842 from the Indianapolis district.
In his youthful days General Wallace displayed a tendency to neglect the opportunities which his father's position gave him. He hated books and schools, and remained at school only so long as it was impossible to avoid. In this manner he acquired but little real foundational education.
Previous to the outbreak of the Mexican war General Wallace had commenced the study of law. When the call for soldiers came he was among the first to enlist. He was not then 20 years old, but his services were so meritorious that he came back from the war a lieutenant. At the close of the war he married Susan A. Elston, widow of a pioneer of Crawfordsville.

When Garfield was elected President he sent for Wallace, who was a close personal friend, and during the conversation offered to make him Minister to Constantinople on the condition that he would write another book during his stay in Turkey. The proffer was accepted by General Wallace. During his voyage to Europe Garfield was assassinated, but Wallace considered his promise to write a book as a sacred pledge. "The Prince of India" was the result.

As a diplomat General Wallace was eminently successful. During his service in Turkey he gained the confidence of the Sultan to a remarkable degree. The Sultan showered him with presents.

One of the most important events in the career of General Wallace was the period immediately following the close of the civil war, when he was sent to Mexico as the secret agent of the government to aid the Mexicans in their fight against the French under Maxi-millian. The close of the war had left the country in such an unsettled condition that it was not advisable to risk a war with France over the attempted aggrandizement of Mexican territory by Maximilian, who was backed by Louis Napoleon. Without the knowledge of Secretary Seward, General Wallace was sent by General Grant to consult with General Juarez, the Mexican President, to see if some way could not be devised whereby the United States could assist Mexico. When General Wallace arrived at Chihuahua he found General Juarez with few troops and no arms.
At the same time every indication pointed to the success of Maximilian.
After the consultation between General Wallace and General Juarez the Government of Tamaulipas was ordered by Juarez to accompany General Wallace back to the United States. In company with Matias Romero, the Mexican Minister to Washington, $5,000,000 worth of Winchester rifles, cannon and other munitions of war were bought and paid for with Mexican government bonds. These were quietly shipped to the mouth of the Rio Grande and passed on to the Mexican troops.
From then on the tide turned, and the Mexicans finally conquered.

During the administration of President Hayes General Wallace was appointed Territorial Governor of New Mexico.
The Southwest at that time was infested with "bad men," and the severe task was imposed upon General Wallace of bringing order and an obedience of law out of the chaos of terrorism into which the lax enforcement of the laws had thrown that section. After many stormy scenes, in which he was almost constantly in personal danger, General Wallace succeeded in eradicating the "bad men"

Danderine
GREW THIS HAIR
AND WE CAN PROVE IT.

MISS MARMARA HENRY, CHICAGO.
5036 Forrestville Ave.
Miss Henry says: "Before I began using Danderine my hair was falling out in great handfuls, and I am pleased to say that Danderine not only stopped it at once, but has made my hair grow more than twice as long as it ever was." Mrs. Elsie Albertson, Little Rock, Ark. says: "It is surely remarkable the way Danderine improves the hair. It has made my hair grow ten inches longer in five months and it is getting thicker and longer all the time. I believe in giving praise where it is due, and you can use my name as reference if you so desire."

FLORENCE RUSSELL, CHICAGO.
215 Mohawk Street.
Since it has become generally known that Danderine causes hair to grow just as abundantly on the heads of children as it does on those of matured persons, many truly marvellous cases are coming to our notice. Little Miss Russell, whose photograph appears above, is certainly one of the remarkable ones. Her beautiful hair is over thirty inches long and her mother says that "DANDERINE GREW EVERY RYE OF IT."

MISS SELMA HASSELL, CHICAGO.
3728 North 42nd Court.
Miss Hassell says: "My hair would not reach below my waist when I began using your Danderine. It was also faded and splitting at the ends. Now it is over 24 feet longer than it ever was and it has regained the original rich blond color. I used the tonic about four months all together."

DANDERINE is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating, fertilizing and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow abundantly long, strong and beautiful. IT IS THE NATURAL FOOD OF THE HAIR, SCIENTIFICALLY CHARGED WITH NEW AND GENUINE LIFE-PRODUCING ESSENCES UNHEARD OF BY OTHER MAKERS OF HAIR TONIC. NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts, we will send a large sample free by return mail to anyone who sends this advertisement to the Knowledge Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and ten cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

and restoring the country to a very good semblance of order.

It was during General Wallace's term as Governor of New Mexico that the notorious "bad man," "Billy the Kid," was killed. "Billy the Kid" had been captured a number of times and as often escaped. He was known to have killed no less than 21 men.

General Wallace was commander of the Loyal Legion in Indiana for a number of terms. He was also a member of the Grand Army. He was also a member of the commission that tried the assassin of President Lincoln. Practically every epoch of the country's history from the Mexican war to the time when he ended his service as Minister to Turkey has been marked indelibly with the imprint of General Wallace's service.

A Touching Story is the saving from death of the baby girl of Geo. A. Eyer, Cumberland, Md. He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief, after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At E. S.
Leadbeater & Sons' drug store, 50c and $1.00

No joy or pleasure on this earth quite equals that which comes into the home when baby arrives. Who can describe the happiness of man and woman, joined in wedlock, as they look upon the fragile, delicate mite that is blood of their blood and flesh of their flesh? And who can depict the hopelessness and dejection that hover about the home where the wife is incapable of becoming a mother?

Barrenness proceeds from some derangement of the distinctly feminine organs.
Many of the common ailments known as "female troubles" cause it. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription overcomes barrenness by stamping out diseases of women, and by healing and curing ulceration. It tones up the system, stops drains, and restores strength. During gestation it modifies morning sickness, gives elasticity to the overstrained parts concerned, makes the hour of baby's coming short and almost painless, and gives wonderful recuperative power to the patient. By making the mother strong and cheerful, it makes the little one healthy, vigorous and good natured. Insist upon the medicine dealer giving you Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when you ask for it.
Substitutes are often dangerous.

Mrs. James W. Blacker, of 609 Catherine St., Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "Your medicine has done wonders for me. For years my health was very poor; I had four miscarriages, but since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription' I have much better health, and now I have a fine healthy baby."

SOFTNESS OF SEALSKIN.

Is Rivaled by Human Hair Where Dandruff is Eradicated.

Sealskin is admired the world over for its softness and glossiness; and yet the human hair is equally as soft and glossy when healthy; and the radical cause of all hair trouble is dandruff, which is caused by a parasitic parasite that saps the vitality of the hair at its root. Newbro's Herpicide is the only preparation that is fatal to the dandruff germ. Without dandruff there is no falling hair, but a luxuriant growth of glossy, soft hair is certain. Scouring the scalp won't cure dandruff. Kill the dandruff germ. Thousands of women owe their beautiful suits of hair to Newbro's Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 12c. in stamps to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
